

Company History

1811 1933 1967 1982 1993 1994 1996 1998 2007 2011 2013 2023 2024

1811
T.J. Heimbach
founds a felt cloth factory in Düren (Germany)

1933
Introduction of the Technical Textiles division

1967
Forming fabrics expand the Paper Machine
Clothing division

1982
The TASK service department is established

1982 Heimbach develops the first press felts with a seam, today's Connect designs

1993 Introduction of non-woven fabric technology for press felts

1994
Market launch of Atrocross, the non-woven press felt family

1996
Launch of the multiaxial felt Atromaxx

1998 Forming fabrics are revolutionised through SSB technology

2007 Market launch of transferbelt Webmover

2011
200th Company
Anniversary

2013
Market launch of Primoselect, an innovative, patented forming fabric concept using a single binder yarn instead of binder yarn pairs

2023
Aquisition by Albany International Corp.

2024 Launch of shoepressbelt Atrobelt

2024 Heimbach has about 1,174 employees at 9 different sites all over the world